

Series Outline

1. Arthur L. Albert Photograph Collection

Detailed Description of the Collection

1. Arthur L. Albert Photograph Collection

1. President W.S. Gifford of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company sees Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover on a screen in the first public demonstration of television. Also pictured are AT&T administrators and staff E.P. Clifford, H.D. Arnold, E.B. Craft, F.B. Jewett, Dr. H.E. Ives and Dr. Frank Gray, April 7, 1927 [Print is annotated: "Sent by Telephoto process from New York to San Francisco."]
2. Brigadier General John J. Carty (Vice-President, AT&T), A.E. Berry (Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company) and Judge Stephen Davis (Solicitor of the Department of Commerce) watching Secretary Herbert Hoover as he talks by telephone from Washington, D.C. to a New York audience that is viewing him on television, ca. 1927 [Print is annotated: "Television and Herbert Hoover. Telephoto."]
3. A line of telephone poles and a group of men standing beside them at the Nevada/Utah state line, ca. 1920s [Print is annotated: "Fig 10, Chapter 1. Electrical Communication (Albert)."]
4. Group photo of Portland, Oregon businessmen, civic leaders and telephone officials who participated in the inauguration of the American/Hawaiian telephone circuit. Pictured are T.H. Banfield, Don J. Sterling, Omar C. Spencer, James Tremont Wyatt, I.D. Winslow, C.C. Chapman, Fred Scholl, L.C. Newlands, L.W. Hartman, E.D. Wise, J.C. Ainsworth, C.B. Warren, Arthur J. Farmer, C.P. Toussieng, John A. Zehntbauer, O.C. Roeher, W.D.B. Dodson, P.L. Jackson, Amedee M. Smith, R.D. Miller, Leslie Smith, Ralph Hamilton, W.J. Dodge, O.L. Price, Fred Prince, ca. 1930 [Print is annotated: "Opening the transpacific telephone service to Hawaii. Portland, Oregon."]
5. George Noakes and the TV Dynamic Demonstrator he largely built in 1953-54. OSC News Bureau image., ca. 1950s
6. An image of several men seated at a table using a telephone and early headphones, 1927 [Print is annotated: "Opening the transatlantic Telephone Circuit, New York City."]
7. Group photo of the OAC Engineering School faculty. Pictured are: (front row) Graf, Rogers, Dearbourn, Covell, Skelton, Sims, DuPriest; (second row) Phillips, Martin, Mockmore, Reidenour, Othus, Wenk, Coonrad, Horning, Waterman; (third row) Appelman, Granning, Merideth, Glenn, Thomas, Willey, Boals, Albert, Paul, McMillan; (fourth row) Meyer, Bessessen, Dolan, Wooster, Smith, Summers, Nichols, Holcomb, Cockerline, Harwood., March 3, 1926