Membership on the OSL Board of Directors includes representatives of student government from each of the state colleges and universities. ASOSU members of the OSL Board collected the records in this subgroup, which include bylaws, correspondence, financial statements, handbooks, meeting minutes, newspaper clippings, publications, reports, and board of director lists. Among the topics addressed in these materials are tuition policies, student evaluations of faculty, financial aid, voter registration, and tax exemption. Formed in 1975, OSL changed its name to the Oregon Student Association (OSA) in 1997, operating with the same structure and mission.
