Introduction and Revision History

This General Records Retention Schedule (“General Schedule”) sets a minimum retention period for each category of record described herein per University Standard 04-010 for Records Retention at Oregon State University (effective January 2, 2019).

The University Standard is available online here:
https://policy.oregonstate.edu/UPSM/04-010_records_retention
It is also available as a PDF:
https://policy.oregonstate.edu/sites/policy.oregonstate.edu/files/04-010_records_retention.pdf

Per section 5.1.1 of the University Standard 04-010 for Records Retention:
In the event of an active public records request, subpoena, litigation discovery request, audit, internal or external investigation, state or federal information request, or litigation or other legal hold, halt any scheduled disposal activities, including purging or transferring materials to the Special Collections and Archives Research Center until further instructed.

The following additions and changes were made to the General Records Retention Schedule effective May 10, 2021:

- Update of references and links to the University Standard (04-010) for Records Retention.
- Addition of statement to the introduction regarding halting of scheduled disposal activities.
- Modification of the schedule format to indicate the effective date for specific records.
- Addition of the following records to Section 2 (Finance and Administration) and associated renumbering:
  - Background Check Records
  - Child and Youth Program Participant Records
  - Volunteer Service Records
- Revision to Student Academic History Records (Centralized) to remove “(Centralized)” and add records that are not typically part of the records held by the Office of the Registrar.
- Addition of the following records to Section 1 (Academic Programs and Student Records) and associated renumbering:
  - Course Records
  - Examinations, Tests, Term Papers, and Homework Records
