

Special Collections and Archives Research Center – Oregon State University Libraries

College of Home Economics Motion Picture Films and Videotapes (FV P 044)
Preliminary Container List

Motion Picture Films, circa 1950 – circa 1960

Box 1

FV P044:1 – Withycombe House, circa 1955; 16 mm b/w with sound; apx. 350 ft.
Digitized and [available online.]

FV P044:3 – Home Economics Careers, circa 1960; 16 mm b/w kinescope (perhaps of KOAC-TV broadcast) with sound; apx. 500 feet. Digitized and [available online.]

Home Management House and Nursery School, 1955-1956; 4 reels of b/w super 8 mm film depicting home economics students with children.
Digitized and [available online.]

Box 2

Mattress Construction, circa 1950; 16 mm color with soundtrack; 400 feet. The film includes no title or credit frames. It is in marginal conditions as it exhibits some warping and shrinkage of the film base.

Videotapes, 1985-1998

Box 3

A New Family Study Center at OSU, 1987; 5 VHS videotapes. Includes music and narration by Richard Ross and Dave Andrews.
Digitized and [available online.]

College of Home Economics centennial, 1988. Several takes of a rehearsed statement by a crowd in front of the Memorial Union declaring the 100th anniversary of the College in May 1988. The recording was made for the Good Morning, America television program and the videotape provided by KEZI television station in Eugene.

FV P044:2 – Dean Betty Hawthorne on the history and evolution of Home Economics, February 10, 1986.
Digitized and [available online]

When Dependency Increases, 1990; distributed by Extension Gerontology. Tapes of two programs in this series: 260 Primrose Lane and The Dollmaker.

Box 4

Lectures and presentations by off-campus speakers for home economics education classes, 1985-1989; 10 VHS videotapes. Topics include teen/parent programs, food science and technology, fashion merchandising, and teaching about interpersonal relationships in high school. Presenters include:

- Ted Dowell on discipline in schools, TPIII seminar, October 16, 1985 Digitized and [available online]
- Kay Mehas on food science education, November 17, 1986 Digitized and [available online]
- Joanne Miksis, "Perspectives on Aging," November 17, 1986 Digitized and [available online]
- Arlene Holyoak on special education, February 25, 1987 Digitized and [available online]
- Gini Teemer on family life education, December 2, 1987 Digitized and [available online]
- Doris Brannan on high school home economics education, June 30, 1988 Digitized and [available online]
- Clara Pratt on gerontology, June 30, 1988 Digitized and [available online]
- Kathy Sansone on controversial topics in parenting and relationships classes, February 15, 1989 Digitized and [available online]
- Joanne Miksis on teen parent programs, circa 1980s. Digitized and [available online]
- Debbie Zeller on fashion merchandising and Gerry Olson on personal finance, circa 1980s. Digitized and [available online]

Box 5

Lecture by Gini Teemer (Chris Southers), 1986.

Nutrition education programs throughout the United States, undated. Digitized and [available online]

"Home Economics: A Survival Skill," 1985; Portland Public Schools Consumer/Homemaking Committee. Digitized and [available online]

"Mini-College: Oregon's Best-Kept Secret, 1998;" prepared by OSU Extension and Experiment Station Communications. Digitized and [available online]

"OSU Extension Mini-College," 1994; 2 videotapes. Digitized and [available online]