

Series Outline

Series I. Published Photographs - Un-numbered

Series II. Published Photographs - Numbered

Series III. Unpublished Photographs

Detailed Description of the Collection

Box

Series I. Published Photographs - Un-numbered

- 1 Title page. Sulphur Springs Stock Ranch with Soap Creek and Writsman's Butte in the background, circa 1914 [taken from the western side of Lewisburg Saddle looking east. This photograph was first published in October, 1993 on page 81 of Chapter B to Comments on the Draft Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement on Management of Habitat for Late-Successional and Old-Growth Forest Related Species within the Range of the Northern Spotted Owl, which was prepared by the Northwest Forest Resources Council, Portland, Oregon, and the American Forest and Paper Association, Washington, D.C., as the principal forest industry response to the Clinton Plan for Northwest Forests.]
- 1 X. Marcks Family Photo, circa 1912 [This picture of Wanda Marcks and her family was probably taken by Ernest Cook and shows Wanda as a teenager, a few years before her wedding to Ernest; to Wanda's left are her brothers, Raymond and Wallace, her sister, Florence, her mother, Helen, and her father, Louis.]
- 1 54. Cook Family Photo, circa 1890 [This photograph of the Cook family shows William Hunt Cook, his daughters, Doris, Lucine (Lina), and Mary; sons John W. (left) and Tyrone P. (right), and wife.]
- 1 84. Mrs. Marcks and Mrs. Tiffany, October 1920

Box

Series II. Published Photographs - Numbered

published on pages 56-60 and 70-75

- 1 01. OAC campus scene, Corvallis, Oregon [This postcard may have been made from a photo by Ernest Cook. It shows Benton Hall from the northeast, sometime between 1905 and 1915.]
- 02-04. Campus views; Roy Cook believes Ernest took them as a student around 1910
- 1 02. Benton Hall
- 1 03. Benton Hall and Women's Center Building
- 1 04. Waldo Hall, Education Hall, and Benton Hall
- 1 05. Bandstand, circa 1910
- 1 06. Bandstand and library quadrangle, circa 1910 [This view shows the Wilson house on the current site of the library and Alpha Hall on the current site of Social Science Hall.]
- 1 07. McAlexander Fieldhouse and athletic field south of Waldo Hall, circa 1910
- 1 08. Apperson Hall, circa 1910
- 1 09. Greenhouse, circa 1910
- 1 10. Machine shop, circa 1910
- 1 11-14. Views of the new family home for the Cooks were probably taken by Ernest around 1914; note size and spacing of trees around home at that time
- 1 15. Growing corn, circa 1914 [note the foot of Bakers Mountain in the background.]
- 1 16. Grain, man, and barn, circa 1914 [view of a Sulphur Springs Stock Ranch crop; photographer may be either Ernest Cook or Wanda Cook.]
- 1 17. Old barn, circa 1915; Roy Cook believes that this barn was probably located in Soap Creek Valley before the turn of the century
- 1 P221:18. Unidentified Soap Creek Valley cabin, circa 1914 [may be a school building or a teacher's cottage.]
- 19-23. Sulphur Springs Stock Ranch, circa 1914 [Cook house visible in all photos.]
- 1 19. Looks southwest, toward Sulphur Springs, with Kings Valley Ridge in the background
- 1 20. Panorama of the southern portion of Soap Creek Valley with Bakers Mountain to the right
- 1 21. Easterly view with Writsman's Peak in the left background and Coffin Butte in the center
- 1 22. Southeasterly view with Coffin butte barely visible to the left and the northern slopes of Lewisburg Saddle on the right
- 1 23. Close-up of fence

Box

Series III. Unpublished Photographs

- 1 Cabin or farm building, circa 1910s
- 1 Partially cleared land with stumps and possible slash burning