Detailed Description of the Collection

Box

1. Correspondence, 1946 1954-1993 (6 boxes)

Williams's correspondence, primarily with colleagues at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Oregon State University, are held in Series 1. Of particular note is a large volume of communications with Williams's literary editor, Gerard F. McCauley, as well as an extensive series of records documenting Williams's twenty-four-year affiliation with OSU. Family correspondence is likewise included, as are materials relating to the Organization of American Historians' Committee on Access to Documents and Open Information, which Williams founded.
